

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Joseph Vaillancourt
a/k/a Bryan Bernard

v.

Civil No. 06-cv-438-JD

New Hampshire Department of Corrections, et al.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction deals with allegedly deficient medical care by Berlin prison officials related to alleged bleeding episodes on January 21 and 25, 2006 and in the period June-July to September 6, 2006. However, despite the huge list of his desired defendants, none of them are Berlin prison medical personnel. Plaintiff cannot, as a matter of law, be entitled to an injunction against the Concord prison officials for medical neglect allegedly at the hands of Berlin officials six months to one year ago. The motion is but one more of plaintiff's frivolous filings. I recommend that the motion be denied without the necessity of a wasteful evidentiary hearing.<sup>1</sup>

Any objections to this report and recommendation must be filed within ten (10) days of receipt of this notice. Failure to file objections within the specified time waives the right to appeal the district court's order.
